

Exploring Sex Work

Why is this course for you?

Do you work or come into contact with sex workers? Or do you feel that sex workers are accessing your service and you need more information and support on how to engage with this client group. This innovative course aims to provide professionals with a better understanding of sex work, the experiences and support needs of sex workers. Lead by our highly experienced frontline workers and trainers you will be learning from professionals who are national experts in the field.

What this course covers:

- Definitions/terminology
- Diversity and different sectors of sex work
- Routes into sex work
- Rights and the law
- An overview of the support needs of sex workers
- Health
- Sexual Violence 7 other crimes against sex workers
- Safety and 'ugly mugs'
- Drugs and alcohol
- Exit support
- Housing & welfare
- Migrant sex workers
- Dealing with stigma
- Good practice principles for support services for sex workers
- Methods for engaging sex workers
- Creating a sex worker friendly ethos and practice

Training options

Whether you want to attend one of our open courses or we come to you and deliver our bespoke training in-house we have a range of training options to suit every organisation's needs and unique requirements.

Your training course	Training Option 1	Training Option 2
25 delegates per course	✓	✓
Our trainer travels to your organisation	✓	✓
Pre and Post training assessments to understand your colleagues unique requirements	✓
Bespoke training content	✓
Impact Report- measuring distance travelled	✓
Live web-chat with your trainer after training date to answer further questions	✓
Training pack	✓	✓
CPD certificate	✓	✓
Total	£1500	£750