

Level 2: Understanding Sexual Violence and exploring responses

Why is this course for you?

This course will examine the broad scale that sexual violence encompasses. From Rape to FGM, the range of behaviours is vast. Despite stereotypes, it is not just confined to female victims or male perpetrators nor carried out by strangers on the street at night. We will explore the legal history in the UK and what recent changes in law have meant for victims and in light of some recent historical cases (Saville et al) what the law means in those cases. We will also look at victim's needs and how to meet them and at what longer term needs may need to be met. This one day course is aimed at all professionals who want to enhance their understanding of sexual violence.

What this course covers:

- To explore what sexual violence is
- To examine the law in relation to sexual offences
- To explore the effect sexual violence has on the individual
- To understand what victims need in the acute phase
- To identify relevant agencies that can assist victims in our areas
- To explore sensitive and effective ways to work with victims
